At Keystone Academy Trust, our policies are shaped by our shared vision of a flourishing, open-minded and resilient family of schools, inspired by others to live life in all its fullness. This vision is drawn from John 10:10 - “I have come that they may have life and have it to the full.” Rooted in the values of integrity, service, resilience and compassion, our policies reflect our commitment to enabling Stronger Futures for All and to nurturing the academic, personal and spiritual development of every child and adult in our care. Strengthened by our partnerships with families and communities, each policy provides clarity, consistency and care - supporting inclusive practice, protecting the vulnerable, championing staff wellbeing, and ensuring strong, ethical leadership across our schools. Together, these policies create a transparent and principled framework that honours the dignity and potential of those we serve while upholding our educational mission and ethos.

1. Introduction

This document describes how Keystone Academy Trust (the “trust”) intends to fulfil its responsibilities under the Public Sector Equality Duty with regard to its workforce.

Public bodies such as trusts and schools have a duty, under the 2010 Equality Act, to ensure they promote equality within their organisation and this statement sets out how we endeavour to achieve this within the trust.

Keystone Academy Trust believes that every individual deserves the opportunity to flourish within an inclusive environment. We are committed to nurturing a culture of equity, where diversity is valued and everyone is supported to achieve their full potential.

We respect the rights of individuals, including the right to hold different views and beliefs. We will not allow these differences to be manifested in a way that is hostile or degrading to others.

The Equality Objectives will be part of our trust’s strategy objectives and our School Improvement Plans (SIP) and information will be published on each school’s website.

We aim to provide the highest possible education for all our pupils. The ethos of our academies clearly reflects our commitment to fully including and respecting all members of our academy communities.

This statement applies to all employees, pupils, trustees and Local Governing Boards of the trust.

2. Due Regard

Due regard means giving relevant and proportionate consideration to the duty or decision.

The trust has due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Equality Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it.

Keystone Academy Trust will annually review how well we achieve these aims with regard to the protected groups under the Equality Act (2010) (race, disability, gender, gender re-assignment, age, pregnancy and maternity, marital status, religion and belief and sexual orientation).

3. Collecting and Using Information

Keystone Academy Trust will collect information to identify key issues in order to:

- Understand the impact of our policies, practices and decisions on people with different protected characteristics, and thereby plan them more effectively.
- Assess whether we are discriminating unlawfully when carrying out any of our functions.
- Identify what the key equality issues are for our organisation.

The trust will collect information to assess performance in order to:

- Benchmark our performance and processes against those of similar organisations, nationally or locally.

The trust will collect information to take action against discrimination by:

- Considering taking steps to meet the needs of staff who share relevant protected characteristics.
- Identifying if there are any actions, we can take to avoid discrimination and harassment, advance equality of opportunity or foster good relations.
- Making informed decisions about policies and practices which are based on evidence about the impact of our activities on equality.
- Developing equality objectives to meet specific duties.
- Having due regard to the aims of the general equality duty by ensuring that staff have appropriate information for decision making.

The trust will identify key equality issues in our workforce, including any evidence of pay gaps or 'occupational segregation' i.e. employees with certain protected characteristics being over-represented in particular roles, for example, women as cleaners, or at certain grades. In addition, we note that it is likely to be useful to collect and consider information, appropriately disaggregated, about:

- Recruitment and promotion.
- Numbers of part-time and full-time staff.
- Pay and remuneration.

- Training.
- Return to work of women on maternity leave.
- Return to work of disabled employees following sick leave relating to their disability.
- Appraisals.
- Grievances (including about harassment).
- Disciplinary action (including for harassment).
- Dismissals and other reasons for leaving.

4. Publication of Equality Information

Keystone Academy Trust will publish relevant, proportionate information which is broad enough to give a full picture of performance across our trust. The trust will demonstrate how we have used this information to have due regard to all three aims of the duty, for all relevant protected characteristics. Our information will usually fall into two main categories:

- Information to identify equality issues. Examples of this include equality monitoring information about employees, information about the effect of our activities on people with different protected characteristics or any engagement we may have carried out.
- Information about steps taken to have due regard to the aims of the general equality duty. For example, any records we have about how we had due regard in making certain decisions, information that was considered in that decision-making (including engagement), consideration of steps to mitigate adverse impacts or details of policies to address equality concerns.

We note that the Equalities and Human Rights Commission would normally expect to see the following information:

- The race, disability, gender and age distribution of our workforce at different grades, and whether they are full or part-time.
- An indication of the likely representation on sexual orientation and religion and belief provided that no-one can be identified as a result.
- An indication of any issues for transsexual staff, based on engagement with transsexual staff or equality organisations.
- Gender pay gap information.
- Information about occupational segregation.

- Grievance and dismissal information for people with relevant protected characteristics.
- Complaints about discrimination and other prohibited conduct from staff.
- Details and feedback of engagement with staff and trade unions.
- Details of policies and programmes that have been put into place to address equality concerns raised by staff and trade unions.

5. Our Objectives

The trust's equality, diversity and inclusion objectives will follow these principles:

- All members of the trust community (staff, pupils, trustees and governors) are of equal value and will be treated fairly and equitably.
- All individuals are entitled to work and learn in an environment which is inclusive and respectful where differences are recognised and respected.
- Keystone Academy Trust has high expectations for the whole trust community.
- Positive attitudes and relationships are fostered, resulting in a shared sense of cohesion and belonging.
- Objectives pertaining to this policy are specific and measurable over reasonable timescales.
- All leaders will abide by the Seven Nolan Principles of Public Life.
